MEDICINAL.

IT'S A MILLSTONE

About a young man's neck to be a sufferer from nervous exhaustion, nervous debility, impaired memory, low spirits, irritable temper, and the thousand and one derangements of mind and body that result from, unnatural, pernicious habits, contracted through ignorance. Such habits result in loss of manly power.

Such habits result in loss of manly power, wreck the constitution and sometimes produce softening of the brain, spllepsy, paralysis, and even dread insanity.

To reach, re-claim and restore such unfortunates to health and happiness, is the aim of the publishers of a book written in plain but chaste language, on the nature, symptoms and curability, by home treatment, of such diseases. This book will be sent scaled, in plain envelope, on receipt of ten cents in stamps, for postage. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, 633 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

WASHINGTON AS A CHURCHMAN. One of the greatest causes of misunderstanding between the northern and southern colonies during the revolution was the difference of religious belief. The New Englanders were the descendants of exiles from religious persecution Allays Pain and Inflammation.

The richer Virginians, on the con-trary, were Episcopalians almost to a man, and they had come to this coun-try on the best of terms with the one they had left, much as younger sons now go to Australia or Canada. The more credit to them for taking such manful part in the revolution!

Washington was a pillar of the church and—to be more precise—of Christ Church, Alexandria. The old building still stands, little changed except wonderful Wobble Gear. No wear, no lost motion, no noise, no breaking of gears, or pitman, or knives or guards. Every good feature and no bad ones.

The only mower that hai a self adjusting in pounds of tobacco, not ing in pounds of tobacco, not money. The bricks are English, the shingles were Juniper and nearly an inch thick, the mortar was two-thirds lime and only one-third sand.

Washington paid the highest price for a pew. It was fenced in on all four sides, as was the ancient custom, and it still stands as in his day, marked with his name.

Before the revolution the church was under the authority of the Bishop of London. The vestrymen had power to levy taxes, bind out apprentices, receive game-law fines and make surveys. The rector's salary was paid in tobacco. There were two female sextons in succession, who keep bad boys in order.

The dependence of the Virginian church upon the mother country had to be rudely sever by the revolution. Washington always remained a good churchman, and lived to see American bishops ruling a church which had won its freedom with that of the States .-Richmond State.

Another report deprecates the gen eral condemnation of raptorial birds for the offenses of a few. It laments the lack of knowledge on the part of legislative committees that draft the game laws of the various States. That the beneficial species of hawks and the beneficial species of hawks and owls will eventually be protected, it claims, there is not the slightest doubt. When farmers are convinced that the birds are their friends they will demand protection for them, and already leading agricultural and sportsman journals are deprecating the indiscrimnate slaughter.

"Many of the citizens of Rainsville, Indiana, are never without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house," says Jacob Brown, the leading merchant of the place. Headache.

This distressing malady is caused by a run-down state of the health, and is often a forerunner of other and more dangerous diseases.

cures headache by removing the cause of it; and this is the way it

It purifies and enriches the blood, quickens the action of the kidneys, the liver and the bowels, and gently and pleasantly stimulates the digestive organs, and in fact thoroughly renovates and tones up the whole system-and you have no more headache. And besides it is pleasant to take, and will not stain the teeth nor cause constination.

Is this not better than dosing yourself with disagreeable and dangerous drugs, which at the best can do no lasting good?

Don't be deceived by imitations. See the erossed red lines on the wrapper. Our book, "How to Live a Hundred Years," tells all about it; should be read by everybody; free for 2c, stamp.
